

NST strives for educating and empowering the rural, downtrodden / backward especially the Dalit community in the broader perspective of National reconstruction.

Founded in the year 2004, with a mission to formulate strategic plans in a positive and constructive direction which includes:

- Social awareness and educational programs
- Economical opportunities and development projects.

NST at present is centered at Perambalur; having its activities in 60 villages in Perambalur and Cuddalore districts of Tamilnadu.

NST offers the following services:

- Evening free-tuition classes
- Free-computer coaching centre
- Career guidance and counseling
- Free-tailoring institute along with self-employment opportunities
- Health care programs
- Cultural orientation programs and personality development
- Social workers training camps
- Community- leaders' meet
- Relief camps during the crisis
- Awareness programs on social and national issues

NST is named after the renowned historical Tamil saint Nandanar (Thirunaalappovar Nayanmar Swamigal) as Nandanar Sevashrama Trust.